Castle Hoyos in Gutenstein was built in the 16th century by the Lords of Hoyos and has been inhabited by various noble families over the centuries. It is an impressive Renaissance castle with a beautiful facade and courtyard. During World War II, the castle served as a military hospital and later as a camp for displaced persons. In the 1980s, it was restored and for some time served as a cultural center and event venue. There was a museum with a collection of historical objects and artworks, as well as a gallery for contemporary art.

Castle Hoyos is also known for its beautiful surroundings, which are surrounded by forests and mountains. There are many hiking trails and bike routes nearby, as well as skiing opportunities in the winter. Overall, Castle Hoyos is a fascinating historical building, surrounded by picturesque scenery and representing an important cultural center for the region.

Unfortunately, the castle and the castle park are privately owned and no longer open to the public. However, you can still take beautiful pictures 😊 Address: Markt 1, 2770 Gutenstein

Overall, this itinerary should take you around 5 to 6 hours to complete, depending on how much time you spend at each location.

We hope you enjoy your trip and have a wonderful time exploring the beautiful Austrian countryside!
